Report regarding the 10th Prestigious Edition, Amritsar International Folk Festival 2022

The 10th Prestigious Edition of the Amritsar International Folk Festival, organized in collaboration with the Punjab Cultural Promotion Council, unfolded its vibrant celebrations on November 12th, 2022, at Khalsa College for Women, Amritsar. The event showcased a rich tapestry of cultural diversity and artistic expressions, uniting various folk traditions on a single stage. S. Rajinder Mohan Singh Ji Chhina, the Honorary Secretary of Khalsa College Charitable Society, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, infusing the event with his esteemed presence. The festival presented a captivating array of folk dances from around the world, including the lively and rhythmic Colombian folk dances, the colorful and vibrant Mexican folk dances, and the passionate and graceful Argentinian dances. Additionally, the event featured the enchanting folk dances from the heartland of Punjab and the picturesque Kashmir region.

Among the diverse performances, the students of Khalsa College of Engineering and Technology, Amritsar, left an indelible mark by presenting the mesmerizing Kashmiri dance "ROUF." Their performance not only showcased their dedication and mastery but also captured the attention and appreciation of the enthusiastic audience. S. Rajinder Mohan Singh Ji Chhina took a moment to laud the exceptional performance of the KCETians during the event. His special acknowledgment served as a testament to the students' hard work and commitment to preserving and celebrating cultural heritage through the art of dance.

The 10th Prestigious Edition of the Amritsar International Folk Festival not only celebrated the cultural diversity of various regions but also created a harmonious platform for artistic exchange and cultural understanding. The event's success and the students' outstanding performance underscored the significance of such festivals in promoting cross-cultural appreciation and fostering a sense of unity among diverse communities.

Report on the 7th-Khalsa Colleges Youth Festival

The 7th Khalsa Colleges Youth Festival, organized by the Khalsa College Charitable Society, was a resounding success, held at Khalsa College for Women Amritsar from 14th November 2022 to 15th November 2022. A total of 14 institutes and more than 2000 students from different six government universities actively participated in the event, showcasing their talents and enthusiasm. The festival witnessed 21 students from Khalsa College of Engineering and Technology competing in 15 different events. Their dedication and hard work paid off as they secured impressive positions in various categories. Notably, they achieved Third Position in Fancy Dress, Third Position in Solo Dance, and Third Position in Quiz, showcasing their versatility and talent.

The valedictory function of the festival was graced by the esteemed presence of S. Rajinder Mohan Singh Ji Chhina, the Honorary Secretary of Khalsa College Governing Council, who commended the participants for their exceptional performances. He took the opportunity to inspire and bless the students, wishing them great success in their future endeavors. Dr. Manju Bala, the Director of KCET, extended her heartfelt congratulations to the students for their remarkable achievements. She appreciated the efforts of the event in-charges, acknowledging their dedication in preparing the students effectively for the Khalsa Colleges Youth Festival. The event not only provided a platform for students to showcase their talents but also fostered a sense of healthy competition and camaraderie among the participating institutes. The festival's success could be attributed to the collective efforts of the organizing committee, participants, and faculty members, who worked tirelessly to make it a memorable experience for everyone involved.

In conclusion, the 7th Khalsa Colleges Youth Festival was a grand celebration of talent and creativity, highlighting the capabilities of young minds from various institutions. It served as a testament to the commitment of the Khalsa College Charitable Society in promoting education and fostering holistic development among students.
