

Khalsa College Governing Council

Khalsa College Charitable Society Amritsar was registered in 1892 under Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860 as a non-profitable, non-commercial, charitable society. Khalsa College started its graduate classes in 1897 and it was affiliated to Calcutta University. This monumental and world famous piece of architecture is magnificently spacious in dimensions and the main college building, a masterpiece of architecture, is a blend of Mughal, Rajput and Sikh Styles.

The Society at present is running 19 Educational Institutions including Schools and Colleges with a total intake of more than 20000 students. All Khalsa Colleges are efficiently managed by Khalsa College Charitable Society, Amritsar with more than 100 members including many eminent educational administrators, educationists, industrialists, and public men of great eminence and repute with long experience of establishing and managing educational institutions including technical and professional education. With such luminaries to guide the destiny, the College is bound to achieve greater heights for the fulfillment of its mission and goals.
